For you, mother, who taught us the value of prayer,
and who became the column of light in our lives.

Maria Coromoto Bianchini de Marrero

ntroduction

This book includes a variety of inspirational pleas by Mrs. Maria Esperanza de Bianchini. This compendium of prayers was part of the daily devotions of this great and humble woman chosen by divine providence to spread the message of love, reconciliation and family unity.

Mrs. Maria Esperanza was born in Barrancas, Monagas State in Venezuela along the Orinoco River, on November 22, 1928, on the feast of Saint Cecilia, patroness of musicians. Although her desired vocation was to be a nun, the Lord called her to be a spouse, a mother of seven children, and a grandmother of twenty grandchildren.

Throughout her 75 years, Mrs. Maria Esperanza, was endowed with special charisms and was blessed in a singular way by Mary, Virgin and Mother, Reconciler of all People and Nations.* Above all these graces, her life was a life surrendered to God and to prayer, which transformed her into an example of obedience to the will of God, and of charity and humility, for all those who crossed her path.

On April 19, 1979 Mrs. Maria Esperanza created the Betania Foundation, a lay movement destined to evangelize, educate youth, develop the well-being of society, and promote social justice. The final purpose of the Foundation is to consolidate the basis of a new world by “loving one another”, with the motto: “Shielded in faith to work for a better tomorrow”. Thus, Mrs. Maria Esperanza founded the Betania Choir on April 19, 1981 directed by her daughter, Maria Auxiliadora, formed by her children, grandchildren, and spiritual children who have devoted themselves to evangelize through music. Mrs. Maria Esperanza carried out a tireless missionary work of spreading the Word of God and the messages of Our Lady throughout the world, producing countless conferences, dialogues, and talks. Many things have been written about her, but little is known about her own writings. It is now time to present them.

After suffering an illness similar to Parkinson’s Disease, Mrs. Maria Esperanza, gave her soul to the Lord in the United States of America, on Long Beach Island, New Jersey, on August 7, 2004.

As you read these pages you will find a number of pleas directed to the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit, and to Our Lady. They have been included with the goal of fostering prayer and deepening your faith. You also will see drawings made by Mrs. Maria Esperanza who signed her work with the artistic name of Flor de Liz. You may enjoy as well her most frequently recited Psalms to which she gave a personal touch. A section of chants has been included because as Saint Augustine said, “Whosoever sings prays twice”, and because the love Mrs. Maria Esperanza had for music made her compose beautiful pleas to be chanted. Therefore, we have felt motivated to share them in this book. We also have included the hymn “Ave Maria de Finca Betania” by Monsignor Pio Bello Ricardo.

We pray to God that the content of this book will become a daily exercise for spiritual growth, and a means to attain the abundant graces that heaven offers when these prayers are recited with the necessary devotion and faith.

Preface

“Prayer is the column of light that enlightens man in the midst of the darkness of the night.” Through this beautiful metaphor Mrs. Maria Esperanza made us understand the value of prayer. The darkness of the night that she mentions here is the profound spiritual ignorance in which many are immersed, mainly due to a society that is sinking in an unleashed quest for worldly pleasures and for materialistic fulfillment; a society that is incapable of transcending to the sublime values of love. But in the midst of that darkness, a column of light appears to enlighten man helping him discover the hidden mystery that exists in the relationship between himself and his Creator.

Mrs. Maria Esperanza was a woman who, in spite of her weakened health and her frail body, projected such energy that it could only be attributed to divine assistance. Each time someone inquired how she managed to be so energetic, she answered, “Prayer, meditation, penance and the Eucharist.” On numerous occasions she said that she could have never been able to live without prayer, for prayer had given her courage even in the most difficult times of her life.

She also emphasized the importance of praying the holy rosary in family, and she referred to this prayer as the mother of all prayers. She also, earnestly fostered devotion to the Thursday Eucharistic Hour of Adoration, pointing out the importance of adoring the Blessed Sacrament.

Mrs. Maria Esperanza was a soul of constant prayer, even during very early hours in the morning. She was reported to say that prayer in the very early morning was her favorite, because silence permitted a greater and more perfect approach to the Lord and the Blessed Mother.

This profound life of prayer encouraged her to compose many short prayers, chaplets, and novenas that came as spontaneous inspirations during those long hours of intimate communication with the Lord and his Mother.

Many of these prayers are those that now give life to this humble and simple book, which has but one purpose, to draw man to his true Father, the Creator of the universe and the only Truth.

Pleas of consecration to the Father

Morning prayer and consecration to the Father

Father, I raise my eyes to heaven, and I do nothing but gaze at You and feel your presence among us. Here in this new day of your dawn, we consecrate ourselves to You in Jesus, Mary and Joseph of Nazareth. Glory be to the Most Holy Trinity in heaven, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit the Comforter. Look after your grand family, all of humanity, man, woman and child. Bless us, Lord. Amen.

Lord, may her presence through the grace of the Holy Spirit help me discern what I can offer You for your glory.

Father, may your holy will be done in me, in my body and my soul. You may have them, rule over them as You please.

Father, should I sleep the eternal dream tonight receive me in your kingdom, but should I awaken may I find the rays of new life of the sun to enlighten my soul.

Invocation of the Psalms

Prayer is the positive force that reaffirms the faith of the people.

Manoel Gonçalves de Araújo

Evocation to Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, my guardian and my defense. He will continue to lead me through his green fields filled with hope, and He will give me to drink from his fresh water to purify my soul. There, he will have me meet John the Baptist who will bathe my head and make me as new as the day I was baptized.

I shall continue walking at his side, and come to the fatherly presence only to find myself before a table all dressed in white with bread and wine to nourish us. My enemies will see me and disappointed they will ask, "How can it be that you are here?" And the Lord will respond by saying, "I have offered him my house that is my sacred Temple, anointing him with pure and holy oil to deliver him from evil so he can live with Me forever more." Amen.

Evocation to Psalm 67

Lord, judge those who harm me, drive away those who fight against me. As wax melts in front of the fire, so may the wicked perish.

Make them run away so we may live in our houses, our homes, with our families and our means of subsistence defending what is ours.

Lord, Lord, we call on You; come to us. May we give a leap of faith casting away any wrong done to us. Free us day and night for the Sacred Heart of Jesus has impressed his seal in our hearts so we may joyfully rest. Amen, Jesus.

Evocation to Psalm 91

Whoever takes shelter under the wings of grace of the Almighty shall be shielded, protected, strengthened and saved from all enemies. The protection of God comes from heaven, which his hands created. As we all have been created by his grace we shall be delivered from all hidden dangers. Thus, we can say:

O Lord, You are my shelter and my refuge and I will only trust in You, because You have delivered me from my persecutors, and from infernal evils. Therefore, no disaster will strike me, because You shall cover me with your wings and I, surrounded by your feathers will be trustful, for your truth shall follow me elsewhere. I shall not be afraid of the shadows in the dark, or of my enemies who prowl at night, let alone of the charges of the wicked one in the midst of the day. A thousand arrows may fall on my left side and ten thousand to my right, but none will touch me because the Lord is with me. You, Lord, will gaze at me with your own eyes, watching over me and demonstrating the justice sinners receive. And I may cry out:

O Lord, your might is supreme, You are the hope of the just, this is why I have followed You because You are God Almighty, and You alone are my Father the Greatest among all the great ones, Master of masters, the Wisest one of all the wise ones, who can solve all matters!

Therefore, O Lord, I will not be harmed, and evil will not strike me, because my home will be kept by one hundred thousand heavenly angels that You put in charge to protect me and to keep all my steps, carrying me in the palm of your hands to keep me from hurting my feet on the stones by lifting them and make me trample down lions, dragons, and snakes just like Mary, Virgin and Mother. I have trusted in You, and I have called You everyday of my life consecrating myself to your fatherly Heart, because You are my Father. And what is that that a father does not do for his son? Thus, I will continue to adore your Name, because You, Lord, are God the Omnipotent, the Greatest of all the great ones.

Because You alone are the greatest I cry out to You, and You are listening and You are with me in my tribulation saving me and filling my soul with glory and with supernatural life. Behold, You have satiated me with a new and long life, making me acknowledge that Jesus is the Savior You sent us to save us and redeem us with his Blood.

Thank You, Lord, O Father of Mercy.

Amen, Jesus.

Father, I raise my eyes to heaven,

feel your presence among us.
Here in this new day of your dawn,
we consecrate ourselves to You in Jesus, Mary and Joseph of Nazareth.

Father, Son and Holy Spirit Comforter.
Look after your grand family,
the humanity of every man, woman and child.
Bless us, my Lord. Amen.

Christ the Lord who comes to save us. Glory, glory to God!

Life

O life of my life, my Lord, elevate this, my song of love

O life of my life, my Lord, this is my great song of love which has only one aim that is to reconcile brothers with brothers.

Life, life has to be taken as the sun illuminating the true feelings of man.

Life, life is only a song, a song of a mother, a song of a dream.
Life, life is the purity of a soul who gives in to the embrace of my Lord.

Appendices

*Daily Prayers

The Sign of the Cross

In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell; on the third day He arose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Angel of God

Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom His love entrusts me here, ever this day be at my side to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen.

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs; mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this, our exile, show unto us the Blessed Fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

Act of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell. But most of all because they offend You, my God, who is all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance and to amend my life. Amen.
